

Easy to manage, easy to use

A better platform for HR

Get them excited with New Hire kits, keep them engaged with thoughtful anniversary and recognition gifts. You've always wanted to do more to celebrate your people, with our online programs now you can.

Engage and empower your people with swag

Allow employees to buy branded merch & show off their company pride. People love feeling appreciated. We make it easy to provide awesome recognition, anniversary, new baby gifts, and more, showing employees that you appreciate their hard work.

New Hire Kits

Welcome your people with a great kit... without all the work. Let's plan an amazing kit, then relax and let us handle all the logistics of kit building and distributing. Your chaotic swag closet will thank us.

Anniversary Gifts

There can be friction in how to best thank your employees for all they do. Should managers handle it, will the items be stored on site? Work with us to build a sound strategy from the top, then let us handle the legwork while you go back to HR-y things.

Recognition & Kudos

Don't let life events go unnoticed... send your people a fun token to show your appreciation for all they do. A new baby, a wedding, whatever it may be.

Kotis helps fast growing brands run and scale their e-commerce programs

Keep your values & mission top of mind

Employee Initiatives

Reinforce the new wellness initiative or mindfulness campaign with swag that keeps things practical and in the forefront.

Celebrations

Your team worked hard. You Reward them (and reinforce your values) with timely merch. It's a win win.

Company Swag

Spread the word with swag. Give your people some fresh merch to get excited about, while pushing out the main message as well.

Let your people redeem gifts Let us handle the logistics

We've created a clean and customizable ordering page that allows your people to view and choose what they want. It's simple, we work together to create compelling merch, then we generate a list of redemption codes that you can share with your employees. Your people pick what they want and we ship it out the next day. Relax and let us handle the heavy lifting.

Manage it all from one platform

Enterprise Level Control

User accounts, budgets, locations, approvals... it's all there to adjust as you see fit.

Vertically Integrated

We design, produce, warehouse and fulfill the product ourselves. True vertical intergration, you won't find this anywhere else.

Ease of use

Our platform is built with you (and your user) in mind. It's flexible, scalable and was designed specifically for swag.

A managed service

Unlike the self service options out there, we're here to actually help you along the way. Plus we have customer support if you need that too.

Inventory Management

Physical Inventory

One inventory set, unlimited storefronts

All of our stores and portals are tied together with a single inventory management system that feeds the listings on each portal. You choose access levels, products displayed and pricing for each portal.

Standard with the Kotis Platform:

- Unlimited Portals
- No long term contract
- Full control over the inventory
